Book Synopsis

Basic English Grammar is designed to help readers understand the fundamentals of English grammar in a systematic, practical, and easy-to-understand manner. It serves as a comprehensive guide for anyone who wishes to build a strong foundation in English grammar as preparation for academic study, professional development, and global communication.

The book covers essential aspects of English grammar, including, parts of speech, sentence structure, tenses, pronouns, prepositions, conjunctions, active and passive voice, and other grammatical rules commonly used in everyday communication. A distinctive feature of this book is its integration of Islamic values into the learning activities, enabling readers not only to develop their English language competence but also to cultivate moral values, character, and spiritual awareness throughout the learning process. Each chapter is presented in a gradual and well-organized manner, featuring clear explanations, contextual examples, and a variety of practice exercises designed to strengthen readers' understanding and language skills. Through its practical, communicative, and values-based approach, this book aims to help readers master English grammar effectively while improving their reading, writing, speaking, and overall English proficiency with greater confidence.

Therefore, Basic English Grammar is an ideal reference for students, university students, teachers, and general readers who wish to learn English grammar comprehensively in a meaningful learning environment grounded in Islamic values.

P R E F A C E

Praise be to Allah, the most exalted, whose mercy and blessings have enabled us to complete this book on Basic English Grammar Heartiest appreciation to the Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h) who carried the message of Allah and took all troubles to pass it on to mankind providing, among other things, the norms and the values of Islamic teachings. As a matter of fact, this book is a starting point of our effort to contribute a supplementary reading on Islamic studies to meet the demand of lack of English literature which is in line with the general aim of English teaching programs at the Islamic Higher Education.

This book covers various short texts on Islamic studies. Some of which are adapted from several sources and have been fitted to the Islamic Higher Education syllabus. Its contents are focused more on reading comprehension, vocabulary building, along with structure items and exercises.

We greatly realize that this book is still far from perfectness. Therefore all constructive criticism and responses to rectify any defects and errors are highly appreciated.

May Allah always bless us.

THE FEATURE OF ISLAM

The most distinctive feature of Islam is probably the name 'Islam' itself! Almost all other religions of the world are known by the names of their founders, places of origin, nations, tribes or communities to which they are preached. On the other hand, Islam is the only religion known by an ideal - the ideal of total submission to the Creator and Sustainer of the worlds, Allah.

Islam views the whole humanity from a vantage point located outside the boundaries of time, region, religion, language, colour and race. It draws out the unique and exquisite relationship between man and God, who is his Creator, Protector and Supreme Law-giver.

This holistic philosophy of Islam on humanity as one integral unit was upheld and propagated by Allah's prophets. The Holy Qur'an declares:

"Mankind was just one single nation, and Allah sent messengers with glad tidings and warnings, and with them He sent the Book in Truth, to judge between people in matters wherein they differed". (Qur'an, 2: 213).

"And verily, We have sent among every community a messenger (proclaiming) '(Worship Allah alone and eschew tyrant (false deities etc.)" (Qur'an, 16:36)

THE WORSHIP OF GOD

At the heart of Islam is the worship of God. The Arabic word Islam means “submission”. The word Muslim designates the one who practices or is the doer of Islam. Muslims believe that the God whom they worship (the Arabic word for God is Allah) is the same God worshiped by Jews and Christians. This is the God of Abraham. The same God whose self-revelation was given through the prophets beginning with Adam and continuing through Moses, Jesus, and finally Muhammad.

In speaking about God, Muslims use the phrase, “I bear a witness that there is no God but God and that Muhammad is his messenger.” In this phrase God's unity (tawhid) is emphasized. God is one. God is not begotten and does not beget.

The unity of God asserts the transcendence of God as the creator of the world. Nothing can be compared to God. Nothing is like God. The greatest sin in Islam is therefore shirk, or “association”. All idolatry is rejected. To abrogate the unity of God is to deny that God is the Omnipotent, Omniscient creator, and the Lord and Sovereign ruler of all worlds.

B. WORDS TO MEMORIZE

Worship	: Sembah, ibadah
To designate	: Menunjukkan, menandakan
Revelation	: Wahyu
To emphasize	: Menekankan
Beget	: Memperanakan, melahirkan
To assert	: Menyatakan, menegaskan
Transcendence	: Keutamaan

Idolatry : Pemujaan berhala.

To abrogate : Mencabut, Tidak mengakui

C. COMPREHENSION

1. According to the text, what is the real meaning of Islam?
2. Is the God worshiped by Muslims different from the God worshiped by Jews and Christians ?
3. What is the emphasis of the Shahadah?
4. Can you differentiate between Islam and Muslim ? Explain!
5. What is one of the biggest sins in Islam mentioned in text?
6. What are some attributes of God mentioned in the text ?

D. Language Focus: PRESENT SIMPLE TENSE

Look at these sentences!

At the heart of Islam is the worship of God.
The Arabic word Islam means “submission”.

We form the Present Simple in this way:

Positive

I
You

We .
They

start at eight o'clock

He
She
It

starts at eight o'clock.

Negative

I
You
We
They

} do not don't

} start at eight o'clock.

He
She
It

} doesn't start at eight o'clock.

Interrogative

Do

{ I
 They
 You }

} start at 8?

They
you

Does { she
He
She
It } start at 8?

2. With he/she/it, we add -s to most verbs:

walk → walks

get → gets leave → leaves

But there are some exceptions:

- We add -es to verbs which end with -sh, -ch, -ss, or -o :

Finish → finishes

Catch → catches

Do → does

Go → goes

- We change some verbs that end with -y in this way :

Cry → cries
Study → studies

Worry → worries

- But we add -s to verbs that end with -ay, -ey, oy, or uy :

Pay → pays

play → plays

buy → buys

- 3. We use the present Simple for facts:

Secretaries work in offices.

Ruth does all her works very well.

It doesn't snow in this country.

- 4. We use the Present Simple for repeated actions (e.g. habits, and events on a timetable):

I usually play tennis at weekends.

Lessons start at 9 o'clock every morning.

E. EXERCISES

I. Put the verbs in brackets () into the correct forms of the Present Simple. For negative verbs, use the short forms (don't, doesn't). Sometimes you do not need to change the verb in the brackets.

1. Anisah ... (catch) the bus to school at about 9 o'clock.

SOURCES OF ISLAM

The original principles of Islam are drawn from the Holy book called Al Qur'an. This book was revealed to Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him), piecemeal over a priority of twenty three years of the Holy Prophets's life. The Sunnah and Hadith of the Prophet is the second source of Islam. In its original sense, Sunnah indicates the doing and Hadith the sayings of the Holy Prophet. In the terminology of Islamic law, however, Sunnah and Hadith are used interchangeably. It purports to convey any saying of the Holy Prophet, or any action or practice or his silent approval of an action or practice of another person.

The third source of the Islamic teachings is Ijtihad of Muslim Scholars (ulamas). This is done in accordance with the spirit and the general scheme of the Shari'ah in respect of matters which have not been decided by Al Qur'an and Al Hadith.

B. WORDS TO MEMORIZE

To draw : Menarik, mengambil

Piecemeal : sedikit demi sedikit, berangsur-angsur

Source : Sumber

Manner : Sikap, tindak tanduk

To convey : Menyampaikan, berarti

To purport : Berisi pokok-pokok

Approval : Persetujuan

Scheme : Kerangka

In respect of: Jika

C. COMPREHENSION

1. Where are the principles of Islam drawn from?

2. To whom was the Holy Book revealed?
 3. How was al-Qur'an revealed to Prophet Muhammad?
 4. Are Sunnah and Hadiths similar or not? Please explain!
 5. How long was al-Qur'an revealed to Prophet Muhammad?
- Why is ijtihad needed ?

D. Language Focus: ACTIVE AND PASSIVE VOICE
(Past and simple Forms).

Study these sentences!

This book was revealed to Prophet Muhammad.
Sunnah and Hadith are used interchangeably.

PASSIVE: These photos were taken by Ahmad.

The object (these photos) in the active sentence corresponds to the subject in the passive sentence. The subject (Ahmad) in the active sentence corresponds to the phrase with by in the passive sentence (by Ahmad). Here are some passive tenses:

Subject + be + Past Participle
Present Simple	: it is taken, they are taken
Past Simple	: it was taken, they were taken
Present Perfect	: it has been taken, they have been taken
Future	: it will be taken, they will be taken

Main Points

- We use the passive voice to focus on the person or thing affected by an action.

- We form the passive by using a form of 'be' and a past participle.
 - Only verbs that have an object can have a passive form. With verbs that can have two objects, either object can be the subject of the passive.
1. When we want to talk about the person or thing that performs an action, we use the active voice.

Example: Mr. Abduh locks the gate at 6 o'clock every night.
The storm destroyed dozens of trees.

When we want to focus on the person or thing that is affected by an action, rather than the person or thing that performs the action, we use the passive voice.

Example: The gate is locked at 6 o'clock every night.
Dozens of trees were destroyed.

2. The passive is formed with a form of the auxiliary 'be', followed by the past participle of a main verb.

Example: Two new stores were opened this year.

The room had been cleaned.

Continuous passive tenses are formed with a form of the auxiliary 'be' followed by 'being' and the past participle of a main verb.

Example: Jobs are still being lost.

It was being done without his knowledge

3. After modals we use the base form 'be' followed by the past participle of a main verb.

Example: What can be done?

We won't be beaten.

When we are talking about the past, we use a modal with 'have been' followed by the past participle of a main verb.

Example: He may have been given the car.

He couldn't have been told by Jimmy.

4. We form passive infinitives by using 'to be' or 'to have been' followed by the past participle of a main verb.

Example: He wanted to be forgiven.

5. In informal English, 'get' instead of 'be' to form the passive.

Example: Our car gets cleaned every weekend.

He got killed in a plane crash.

6. When we use the passive, we often do not mention the person or thing that perform the action at all. This may be because we do not know or do not want to say who it is, or because it does not matter.

Example: Her friend was shot in the chest.

Your application was rejected.

Such items should be carefully packed in tea chest.

7. If we are using the passive and we do want to mention the person or thing that performs the action, we use 'by'.

Example: He had been poisoned by his enemy.

We use 'with' to talk about something that is used to perform the action.

Example: A circle was drawn in the dirt stick.

He was killed with a knife.

8. Only verbs that usually have an object can have a passive form. We can say “people spend money” or “money is spent”.

Example: An enormous amount of money is spent on books.

The food is sold at local markets.

With verbs which can have two objects, we can form two different passive sentences. For example, we can say “The secretary was given the key” or “The key was given to the secretary”.

E. EXERCISES

I. Each of the following sentences tells us something about a person. Express the same fact in a sentence that tells us about the thing and that has a passive verb. Use by.

Example : Picasso painted 'Guernica'.

'Guernica ' was painted by Picasso

- 1.Alexander Fleming discovered the drug penicillin.
- 2.The Beatles wrote the song 'Yesterday'.
- 3.Agatha Christie created the detective Hercule Poirot.
- 4.Beethoven composed the 'Eroica' symphony.
- 5.Margaret Mitchell wrote 'Gone with the Wind'.
- 6.Alexander Bell invented the telephone.
- 7.Frank Whittle designed the jet engine.
- 8.Steven Spielberg directed 'Jurassic Park'.

9. Leonardo da Vinci painted the 'Mona Lisa'.

- II. Use a passive sentence to say the same as the sentence in brackets, but do not say who did the action. Use the correct tense.

Example : They asked Aminah a lot of difficult questions.

Aminah was asked a lot of difficult questions.

1. They gave Mariani some flowers.
2. They offered Jamilah a wonderful job.
3. He will give all the children a present.
4. Somebody sent me a strange letter.
5. They will pay Mrs. Nurma over five hundred pounds.
6. Her parents have promised Aina a bicycle for her birthday.
7. They gave Madame Curie the Nobel Prize for Chemistry in 1911.

III. These sentences are taken from job adverts. Put the verb in brackets after the modal in the sentences, using the correct passive form of the verb.

1.Application forms should by 12 December. (return).

2.Further particulars may from the Senior Tutor. (obtain)

3.Only candidates with relevant experience can (consider)

4.You would to take part in some sports. (expect)

5.This post will initially for three years. (fund)

6.Names of two referees should (give)

7.Interviews will in early January. (hold)

8.Applications should on this form only. (make)

9.Teachers might accommodation in college. (offer)

10. He can... to deliver a seminar in our university .(invite)

THE QUR'AN

The Qur'an is the book of Allah. It means "recitation" or "reading". It refers directly to the manner on how the Qur'an was revealed. Allah the Almighty revealed the Qur'an through the angel Gabriel. Gabriel passed on Allah's words (wahyu) to the Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h). Then the Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h) asked his subordinates to write down exactly what Gabriel told him.

These writings were then collected to form the Qur'an. Muslim believe that the Qur'an contains the exact words, recorded and transmitted without error. It guides humanbeings to happy life both in the world and hereafter.

The Qur'an, as a holy book, consists of 114 chapters or Surahs. Each Surah contains verses called ayat or "signs" of God. The Surahs are not in the order in which the revelation was received. In general, the longer Surahs were revealed in Medina; the shorter in Mecca. It is God's miracle. It is incapable of being imitated and sublime in its form and content.

B. WORDS TO MEMORIZE

Manner	: Cara, sikap
To pass on	: Menyampaikan
To collect	: Mengumpulkan
Error	: Kesalahan
To receive	: Menerima
Miracle	: Mukjizat
Sublime	: Agung, maha mulia

C. COMPREHENSION

1. What is the Qur'an?
2. What does the Qur'an mean?

3. How did Allah send the Qur'an to Prophet Muhammad?
4. What did the Prophet Muhammad do when he received a revelation from Gabriel?
5. How many chapters does the Qur'an have?
6. What is the difference between the Surahs revealed in Medina and Mecca?

D. Language Focus: NOUNS (Countable and Uncountable)

Look at the following examples!

The writings were then collected to form the Qur'an.

The Qur'an, as a Holy book, consists of 114 chapters or Surahs.

Each Surah contains verses called ayat.

1. Countable Nouns

- Count nouns have two forms, singular and plural.
- They can be used with numbers.
- Singular count nouns always take a determiner.

- Plural count nouns do not need a determiner.
- Singular count nouns take a singular verb and plural count nouns take a plural verb.

In English, some things are thought of as individual items that can be counted directly. The nouns which refer to these countable things are called count nouns. Most nouns in English are count nouns.

1. Count nouns have two forms. The singular form refers to one thing or person.

a book - the teacher.

The plural form refers to more than one thing or person.

books - some teachers.

2. You add '-s' to form the plural of most nouns.

Books □ books school □ schools

You add '-es' to nouns ending in '-ss', '-ch', '-s'. '-sh' or '-x'.

class ☐ classes

gas ☐ gases

fox ☐ foxes

watch ☐ watches

dish ☐ dishes

Some nouns ending in '-o' add '-s', and some add '-es'.

Photo ☐ photos

Hero ☐ heroes

piano ☐ pianos

potato ☐ potatoes

Nouns ending in a consonant and '-y' change to '-ies'.

Country ☐ countries

party ☐ parties

Nouns ending in a vowel and '-y' add an '-s'.

Boy ☐ boys

day ☐ days

Some common nouns have irregular plurals.

child ☐ children

man ☐ men

foot ☐ feet

mouse ☐ mice

3. Count nouns can be used with numbers.
... one table - two cats - three hundred pounds.
4. Singular count nouns cannot be used alone, but always take a determiner such as a, another, every, each or the.

We've killed a pig.

He was eating another apple.

She had read every book on the subject.

I parked the car over there.

5. Plural count nouns can be used with or without a determiner. They do not take a determiner when they refer to things or people in general.

Does the hotel have large rooms?

The film is not suitable for children.

Plural count nouns do take a determiner when they refer precisely to particular things or people.

Our computers are very expensive.
These cakes are delicious.

6. When a count noun is the subject of a verb, a singular count noun takes a singular verb.

My son likes playing football.
The address on the letter was wrong.

A plural count noun takes a plural verb.

Bigger cars cost more.
I thought more people were coming.

2. Uncount Nouns

- Uncountable nouns have only one form, and take a singular verb.
- They are not used with 'a', or with numbers.
- Some nouns can be both uncountable nouns and count nouns.

1. English speakers think that some things cannot be counted directly. The nouns which refer to these uncountable things are called uncountable nouns. Uncountable nouns often refer to:

Substances : coal, food, ice, iron, rice, steel, water.

Human qualities : courage, cruelty, honesty, patience.

Feelings : anger, happiness, joy, pride, relief.

Activities : aid, help, sleep, travel, work.

Abstract ideas : beauty, death, freedom, fun, life, luck.

The donkey needed food and water.

Soon, they lost patience and sent me to Durban.

I was greeted with shouts of joy.

All prices include travel to and from London.

2. Uncountable nouns have only one form. They do not have a plural form.

I needed help with my homework.

The children had great fun playing with the puppets.

Some nouns which are uncountable nouns in English have plurals in other languages.

Advice	homework	machinery
baggage	information	money
news	knowledge	equipment
furniture	luggage	traffic

*We want to spend more money on roads,
They carried so much equipment that they were barely able to move.*

3. Some uncountable nouns end in '-s' and therefore look like plural count nouns. They usually refer to:

Objects of study	: mathematics, physics.
Activities	: athletics, gymnastics.
Games	: cards, darts.
Illnesses	: measles, mumps.

Mathematics is too difficult for me.

Measles is in most cases a harmless illness.

4. When an uncountable noun is the subject of a verb, it takes a singular verb.

Electricity is dangerous.

Intelligence develops very slowly in these children. Food was very expensive in those days.

5. Uncountable nouns are not used with 'a'.

They resent having to pay money to people like me.

My father started work when he was ten.

Uncountable nouns are used with 'the' when they refer to something that is specified or known.

I am interested in the education of young children. She buried the money that Hilary had given her. I liked the music, but the words were boring,

6. Uncountable nouns are not used with numbers. However, you can often refer to a quantity of something which is expressed by an uncountable noun by using a word like 'some'

Please buy some bread when you go to town. Let me give you some advice.

Some uncountable nouns that refer to food or drink can be count nouns when they refer to quantities of the food or drink.

Do you like coffee? (uncountable)

We asked for two coffees. (countable)

Uncountable nouns are often used with expressions such as 'a loaf of', 'packets of', or 'a piece of', to talk about a quantity or an item. 'A bit of' is common in spoken English.

I bought two loaves of bread yesterday.

He gave me a very good piece of advice.

They own a bit of land near Cambridge.

7. Some nouns are uncountable nouns when they refer to something in general and count nouns when they refer to a particular instance of something.

Victory was now assured. (uncountable)

FIQH AND FAQIH

The word fiqh is used to denote an understanding of Islam as a whole. The Qur'an has used it, in general, to denote the spirit of the Islamic religion (dīn). Early Muslim jurists (fuqaha) also used the term in a general sense for the same purpose. Today, it is limited to understanding the law of a given legal school of thought. A jurist (faqih, pl. fuqaha) is now understood to be a person who knows the Qur'an, the Sunnah, and the Arabic language. His main task is to interpret and apply the law of his school.

In the history of Muslim world there have been four well-known Islamic schools of thought. They have survived to the present day. These are all named after their founders namely Hambali, Maliki, Hanafi and Syafii.

B. WORDS TO MEMORIZE

As a whole : Menyeluruh

1. What does the word figh refer to ?

2. What does the word faqih denote to ?
3. What is the main task of a faqih?
4. What are three requirements to be a faqih based on the text?
5. Where were the names of the four famous Islamic schools of thought derived from?

D. Language Focus: PRESENT PERFECT TENSE

Study these sentences !

1. The Qur'an has used it, in general, to denote the spirit of Islamic religion.
2. In the history of Muslim world there have been four well-known Islamic schools of thought.

Main points:

- We use the present perfect to relate the past to the present.

- We use the past perfect to talk about a situation that occurred before a particular time in the past.
1. We use the present perfect tense when we are concerned with the present effects of something which happened at an indefinite time in the past.

I'm afraid I've forgotten my book.
Have you heard from Jill recently?

Sometimes, the present effects are important because the events are very recent.

Sarah has just passed her exams.

We also use the present perfect when we are thinking of a time which started in the past and is still continuing.

Have you really lived here for ten years?
He has worked here since 1987.

You also use the present perfect in time clauses, when you are talking about something which will be done at some time in the future.

Tell me when you have finished.

I write to you as soon as I have heard from Jenny.

2. When we want to emphasize the fact that a recent event continued to happen for some time, we use the present perfect continuous.

She's been crying.

I've been working hard all day.

3. We use the past perfect tense when we are looking back from a point in past time, and we are concerned with the effects of something which happened at an earlier time in the past.

I apologized because I had forgotten my book.

He felt much happier once he had found a new job.

They would have come if we had invited them.

We also use the past perfect when we are thinking of a time which had started earlier in the past but was still continuing.

*I was about twenty. I had been studying French for a couple of years.
He hated games and had always managed to avoid children's parties.*

4. We use the future perfect tense when we are looking back from a point in the future and we are talking about something which will have happened at a time between now and that future point.

In another two years, you will have left school. Take these tablets, and in twenty-four hours the pain will have gone.

We also use the future perfect when we are looking back from the present and guessing that an action will be finished.

*I'm sure they will have arrived home by now.
It's too late to ring Doni. He will have left the house by now.*

5. We can also use other modals with 'have', when we are looking back from a point in time at something which we think may have happened at an earlier time.

I might have finished work by then.

E. EXERCISES.

- I. Say what has happened in each situation. Use the words in brackets and the Present Perfect.

Example : Your bike is not where you left it.

(somebody/take/my bike)

Somebody has taken my bike.

1. The garage door was closed; now it is open.
(somebody/open/the garage door)
2. There are no biscuits in the cupboard.
(somebody/eat/all the biscuits)

3. The kitchen window was all right; now it is smashed. (somebody/break/the kitchen window)
4. Mariam's watch is not where she left it.
(somebody/steal/Mary's watch)
5. Your orange juice was in the fridge; it isn't there now. (somebody/drink/my orange juice)
6. Your shoes are not where you left them.
(somebody/take/my shoes)

II. Make complete questions and answers from the words in brackets.

Example : (have/you/see/Khatijah this week?)

Have you seen Khatijah this week?

No, I haven't seen her since last month

1. (have/Santi/win/any tennis competitions this year?
Yes, she/have/ win/three this year)

2. (have/you/shave/today? No, I/have/not/shave/since yesterday)
3. (have/you/sell/many TVs this month? Yes, we/have/sell/23 this month)
4. (have/you/play/tennis this week? No, I/have/not/play/for a month)

ISLAM: THE RELIGION OF MODERATION

Islam as a complete code of life upholds moderation as a basic principle. Because of this, it could be possible for Islam to spread from the Arabian peninsula to all nooks and corners of the world.

There are three courses that can be taken in any affair or on any issue. They are the two extremes: overdoing it: or doing- too little of it. The third is the middling course, doing just enough or what is required.

The middle course is the best course and this is the position of Islam. The Noble Prophet (peace be on him) says "The best position in all affairs is the middling one." The Qur'an, the Glorious Book of Islam, says:

"Thus have We made of you an Ummah justly balanced (a mid nation) that you might be witnesses over the nations and the Apostle a witness over you. " (Qur'an, 2:143).

(Source: The Muslim World League Journal, November 1999)

B. WORDS TO MEMORIZE

Code : Hukum, aturan

To uphold : Menegakkan, menjunjung tinggi

Nooks : Sudut-sudut

Courses : Tingkat.

Extremes : Sangat berlebihan

Middling : Tengah

Noble : Mulia

Witness : Saksi

C. COMPREHENSION

1. What does the word this in paragraph one line two refer to ?

2. Mention three courses in all affairs or issues in the text and then explain the position of Islam.
3. What are the principles used by the author to rely his opinion on Islam as the religion of moderation ?
4. To whom does the word Noble Prophet refer ? How do you know ?

D. STRUCTURE

Language Focus: PERSONAL PRONOUNS

Look at the following examples:

1. They are the two extremes: overdoing it; or doing too little of it.
2. “thus We made of you an Ummah justly balanced (a mid nation) that you might be witness over the nations and the Apostle a witness over you.”

You use personal pronouns to refer back to something or someone that has already been mentioned.

- You also use personal pronouns to refer to people and things directly.
 - There are two sets of personal pronouns: subject pronouns and object pronouns.
 - You can use 'you' and 'they' to refer to people in general.
1. When something or someone has already been mentioned, you refer to them again by using a pronoun.

Junaidi took the book and opened it.

He rang Mariam and invited her to dinner

In English, 'he' and 'she' normally refer to people, occasionally to animals, but very rarely to things.

2. You use a pronoun to refer directly to people or things that are present or are involved in the situation you are in.

Where shall we meet, Santi?

Send us a card so we'll know where you are.

3. There are two sets of personal pronouns, subject pronouns and object pronouns. You use subject pronouns as the subject of a verb.

I	you	he	she	it	we	they
---	-----	----	-----	----	----	------

Note that 'you' is used for the singular and plural form.

We are going there later.

I don't know what to do.

4. You use object pronouns as the direct or indirect object of a verb.

Me	you	him	her	it	us	them
----	-----	-----	-----	----	----	------

Note that 'you' is used for the singular and plural form.

The nurse washed me with cold water.

The ball hit her in the face.

Note that, in modern English, you use object pronouns rather than subject pronouns after the verb 'be'.

There were only Andy, Rahmat, and me in the room.

Who is it? It's me.

You also use object pronouns as the object of a preposition.

We were all sitting in a cafe with him.

Did you give it to them?

5. You can use 'you' and 'they' to talk about people in general.

They say she's very clever.

6. You can use 'it' as an impersonal subject in general statements which refer to the time, the date, or the weather.

'What time is it?'- 'It's half past three.'

It is rainy and cold.

You can also use 'it' as the subject or object in general statements about a situation.

It is too far to walk

I like it here. Can we stay a bit longer?

7. A singular pronoun usually refers back to a singular noun group, and a plural pronoun to a plural noun group. However, you can use plural pronouns to refer back to:

- indefinite pronouns, even though they are always followed by a singular verb.

If anybody comes, tell them I'm not in.

- collective nouns, even when you have used a singular verb.

His family was waiting in the next room, but they had not yet been informed.

9. It is (me/I) who made it all possible.

THE TRIBES OF AUS AND KHAJRAJ

During the eleventh year of the Islamic mission, the Prophet and the Muslims found it difficult anymore to communicate with the people in Mecca. As a matter of fact, the persecution was becoming so relentless that Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) was becoming more or less isolated. It was during that period that he talked to a group of six people from Medina. On going back to Medina, those six people spread the news about him. This aroused the curiosity of many people in Medina. As a result and by the following year, twelve men came for the main purpose to meet with him. They represented the two main tribes from Medina, called Aus and Khazraj. They met with Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) at Aqaba. He talked in details about Islamic teachings and answered many questions they asked. The visitors became very impressed with what they had heard, and they all changed to Islam. (Source: A.S. Hashim, M.D. Life of Prophet Muhammad)

You worked

You worked

He worked

She worked

It worked

They worked

I/you/he/she/it/we/they walked

Positive form

I/you/he/she/it/we/they didn't walk.

Negative form

Did I/you/he/she/it/we/they walk?

Question mark

Short answer: Yes, /you/he/she/it/we/they did.

No, I/you/he/she/it/we/they didn't

There are some exceptions :

- verbs ending with -e example: live ☐ lived like ☐ liked
- verbs ending with a consonant and -y example: apply ☐ applied try ☐ tried

- most verbs ending with one vowel and one consonant.
example: stop □ stopped plan □ planned

Irregular Verbs

Irregular verbs, like regular verbs, have the same form in all persons of the past tense:

I ate We ate

You ate You ate

He/She/It ate They ate

Memorize and practice the past tense forms of these irregular verbs:

Begin □ began feel □ felt hear □ heard

Cost □ cost give □ gave put □ put

Drink □ drank go □ went read □ read

3. We use the Past Simple for single complete events in past time. We often use it with time expressions like at 4 o'clock, yesterday, in 1993 etc:

A. When did you win the cup? B: We won the cup in 1993. C. *We went to a concert yesterday

4. We use the Past Simple for complete events, even when they continued for a long time:

A: How long did the First World War last?

B: It lasted for about 5 years I think.

My parents lived in Japan for three years. Then they went to live in Australia.

5. We also use the Past Simple to talk about repeated events, or habits in the past.

When Habib was young, he always walked to school.

He always smoked a cigarette before he began reading a book.

6. We use the Past Simple to tell a story in past time.

We left home early on Saturday morning and drove, without stopping, to the Scottish border. It took about 6 hours to get there. After we crossed the border, we stopped in a little village, and had something to eat...

FASTING

Fasting or sawm is the forth pillar of Islam. This takes place during the Muslim month of Ramadhan, and starts at dawn and continues until dark each day of the month. The aim of ordering people to fast is to learn how to be patient, to have good morals, to purify their hearts, to elevate their characters, and to be gentle with people. During the days in Ramadhan, nothing may pass between the lips of the worshipper, including marital relations. In short, fasting can be defined as abstaining from eating, drinking, smoking and having sexual intercourse from dawn to sunset.

By this ritual, Muslims demonstrate their dependence only upon God. Muslims are encouraged to do good deeds. The month of Ramadhan, as a result, becomes one of great devotion for many Muslims. Extra prayers are performed. Acts of charity toward the poor are encouraged. The entire Qur'an may be recited both at homes and in mosques. At the end of Ramadhan is a celebration called the Id al-Fithr, "the feast of fast breaking". It is one of the two most important Muslim festival days.

Words like: above, below, down, from, to, towards, up, etc are called prepositions in English

Main points

- We normally use prepositional phrases to say where a person or thing is, or the direction they are moving in.
 - We can also use adverbs and adverb phrases for place and direction.
 - Many words are both prepositions and adverbs.
1. You use prepositions to talk about the place where someone or something is. Prepositions are always followed by a noun group, which is called the object of the preposition.

above	below	in	opposite
among	beneath	inside	outside
at	beside	near	over
underneath	behind	on	between	round
through	under	upon

He stood near the door.

Two minutes later we were safely inside the taxi.

Note that some prepositions consist of more than one word.

In between in front of next to on top of

There was a man standing in front of me.

The books were piled on top of each other.

2. You can also use prepositions to talk about the direction that someone or something is moving in, or the place that someone or something is moving towards.

across	into	past	to along	onto	round	towards
back to	out of	through	up down

They dived into the water.

She turned and rushed out of the room.

3. Many prepositions can be used both for place and direction.

The bank I just across is on the High Street. (place)

I walked across the room. (direction)

We live in the house over the road. (place)

I stole his keys and escaped over the wall. (direction)

4. You can also use adverbs and adverb phrase adverbs for place and direction.

Abroad underground everywhere indoors upstairs nowhere downstairs outdoors somewhere there anywhere here

Santi was here a moment ago.

Can't you go upstairs and turn the bedroom light.

Note that a few noun groups can also be used as adverbs of place or direction.

Steve lives next door at number 23.

I thought we went the other way last time.

5. Many words can be used as prepositions and as adverbs, with no difference in meaning. Remember that prepositions have noun groups as objects, but adverbs do not.

Did he fall down the stairs?

Please sit down.

Always put a sheet of paper underneath.

Prepositions of place - at, in, on

Main points

You use 'at' to talk about a place as a point.

You use 'in' to talk about a place as an area.

You use 'on' to talk about a place as a surface.

1. You use 'at' when you are thinking of a place as a point in space.

She waited at the bus stop for over twenty minutes.

'Where were you last night?'- At Muhammad's house.

2. You also use 'at' with words such as 'back', 'bottom', 'end', 'front', and 'top' to talk about the different parts of a place.

Mrs. Umar was waiting at the bottom of the stairs.

They escaped by a window at the back of the house.

I saw a taxi at the end of the street.

You use 'at' with public places and institutions. Note that you also say 'at home' and 'at work'.

I have to be at the station by ten o'clock.

We landed at a small airport.

A friend of mine is at Training College.

She wanted to stay at home.

You say 'at the corner' or 'on the corner' when you are talking about streets.

The car was parked at the corner of the street.

There's a telephone box on the corner.

You say 'in the corner' when you are talking about a room.

She put the chair in the corner of the room.

3. You use 'in' when you are talking about a place as an area. You use 'in' with:

- a country or geographical region

When I was in Mecca, it was terribly hot.

A thousand homes in the east of Madina suffered power cuts.

- a city, town, or village

I've been teaching at a college in Darussalam.

- a building when you are talking about people or things inside it

They were sitting having dinner in the restaurant.

You also use 'in' with containers of any kind when talking about things inside them.

She kept the cards in a little box.

4. Compare the use of 'at' and 'in' in these examples.

I had a hard day at the office. ('at' emphasize office as a public place or institution)

I left my coat behind in the office. ('in' emphasize the office as a building)

There's a good film at the cinema. ('at' emphasize the cinema as a public place)

It was very cold in the cinema. ('in' emphasize cinema as a building.)

5. When talking about addresses, you give the house number, and 'in' when you just give the name of the street.

They used to live at 5, Syiah Kuala Road.

She got a job in Panglima Polem Street.

Note that American English uses 'on':

'He lives on Penn Street.'

You use 'at' when you are talking about someone's house.

I'll see you at Halim's house.

6. You use 'on' when you are talking about a place as a surface. You can also use 'on top of'

I sat down on the sofa.

She put her keys on top of the television.

You also use 'on' when you are thinking a point on a line, such as a road, a railway line, a river, or a coastal line.

Scrabster is on the north coast.

THE MUSLIM WOMAN

Islam demands that a woman should remain a reasonable being. It does not expect her to become either an angel or a demon. "The golden means is the best of things" said Prophet Muhammad. If one wants to compare or contrast her position in Islam with that in other civilizations, one must consider all the facts, and not merely isolated practices. We can see that in regard to certain aspects of morality, Islam is more rigid and more puritan than certain other systems of life. The position of a mother is exalted in Islamic tradition. Prophet Muhammad has gone so far as to say: "Even Paradise lies underneath the feet of your mothers." Al-Bukhari reports: Somebody asked the Prophet which work pleases God most', He replied: "The service of worship at the appointed hour." And when it was continued: "And what afterwards? the Prophet replied: "To be bounteous to your father and mother." The Qur'an usually reminds man that he must respect his mother. His mother had borne him in her womb, suffered much on his account and brought him up after making all kind of sacrifices.

As regards the woman as wife, the saying of the Prophet is well known: "The best among you is the one who is best towards his wife."

Could I leave
May I

We use Can I etc. to ask for permission. Note that Could I and May I are more formal and polite than Can I. We use can or may to give permission: You can leave your bag here. (or may leave)

We use can or may to give permission:

You can leave your bag here. (or... may leave ...)

If we talk about what is allowed in general (i.e., not by a particular person), we use can:

People can drive on the roads when they are 17.

But official notices often use may:

BAGS MAY BE LEFT HERE.

4. Request

Can you	}	help me?
Could you
Would you

We use Can you, Could you, and Would you, (but not May you) when we ask someone to do something. Could and would are more formal and polite than can.

5. Offers

I'll do it.

Shall I do it?

I'll post that letter for you.

Shall I open the door?

We use shall I and I'll to offer to do something. Note that shall I is a question:

A: Shall I open the door?

B: Yes, please or No, thank you.

E. EXERCISES

I. Choose the right word from the words in brackets, and put it in the gap.

Example: May (May/Will/Would) I take one of these forms, please?

1. In the street:

Excuse me, officer, (could/may/shall) you tell me how to get to the station?

2. In an office:

A: (Shall/Could/Would) I speak to Mrs. Yusuf, please?

B: I'm afraid she's in a meeting.

A: I see. (Will/Would/Shall) I come back later?

B: Yes, come back in about an hour.

3. At a railway station:

A: Do you think we (may/can/would) eat our sandwiches here?

B: (Couldn't/Can't/Wouldn't) you read? Look at the notice; it says: 'F O
O D (WOULD/MAY/COULD) NOT BE EATEN IN THIS WAITING ROOM.'

4. A: Somebody must tell Rini about next week's meeting.

B: (Will/Would/Shall) I phone her?

A: No, you (may not/can't/will not) phone her because she hasn't got a phone.

B: Oh, I see. Tell me her address again, and I (may/'ll) take a message to her.

A: Are you sure you (could/may/ 'll be able to) find her house?

B: Well, I (could/would/managed to) find it the last time that I went there, without any problem.

THE PROHIBITION OF APPROACHING ADULTERY (Zina)

All revealed religions have prohibited fornication and adultery (zina). Islam, the last of the divinely revealed religion, is very strict in prohibiting zina. It leads to confusion of lineage, child abuse, the breaking-up of families, and bitterness in relationships. It also spreads venereal diseases and causes a general laxity in morals. Moreover, it opens the door to a flood of lusts and self-gratification. In line with this, Allah Ta'ala decrees : "And do not come near zina; indeed, it is an abomination and an evil way: '(1 7:32).

When Islam prohibits something, it closes all the avenues of approach to it. This is achieved by prohibiting every step and every means which lead to the unlawful deed (haram.) Accordingly, whatever excites passions, opens ways for illicit sexual relations between a man and a woman, and promotes indecency and obscenity, is (haram or unlawful). That is why Islam prohibits privacy between man and woman without a Mahrem.

The Prophet (peace be upon him) said:

“Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day must never be in privacy with woman without there being a mahrem.”

A Mahrem denotes a relationship either by marriage or by close blood ties of such degree that marriage is permanently prohibited. With reference to a woman, a mahrem is either her husband or any male relative with whom marriage is permanently forbidden, such as her father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle or nephew.

B. WORDS TO MEMORIZE

Fornication : Zina

Strict : Ketat, keras

Confusion : Kekacauan, kebingungan.

Lineage : Keturunan
Venereal : Penyakit kelamin
Lust : Nafsu
Gratification: Kepuasan
Abomination: Yang sgt dibenci

- Adjectives is used to give more information about nouns and pronouns.

A. Position of adjectives

Main points

- There are two main positions for adjectives: in front of a noun, or as the complement of a linking verb.
 - Most adjectives can be used in either of these positions, but some adjectives can only be used in one.
1. Most adjectives can be used in a noun group, after determiners and numbers if there are any, in front of the noun.

He had a beautiful smile.

She bought a loaf of white bread.

There was no clear evidence.

2. Most adjectives can also be used after a linking verb such as be, become, feel, seem, look, appear, get, etc.

I'm cold.

I felt angry.

Nobody seemed amused.

3. Some adjectives are normally used only after a linking verb.

afraid	asleep	due	ready	unable alive	aware	glad	sorry	well
alone	content	ill	sure

For example, you can say 'She was glad', but you do not talk about 'a glad woman'.

I wanted to be alone.

We were getting ready for bed.

I'm not quite sure.

Fatimah didn't know whether to feel glad or sorry.

4. Some adjectives are normally used only in front of a noun.

Eastern		existing	neighboring northern	atomic	indoor occasional		southern	countless introductory		outdoor	western digital		maximum

For example, you talk about 'an atomic bomb', but you do not say 'The bomb was atomic'.

He sent countless letters to the newspapers.

This book includes a good introductory chapter on forests.

5. When you use an adjective to emphasize a strong feeling or opinion, it always comes in front of a noun.

absolute	outright	pure	true
complete		perfect	real	utter entire		positive	total

Some of it was absolute rubbish.

He made me feel like a complete idiot.

6. Some adjectives that describe size or age can come after a noun group consisting of a number or determiner and a noun that indicates the unit of measurement.

Deep	long	tall
high	old

He was about six feet tall.

The water was several meters deep. The baby is nine months old.

Note that you do not say 'two pounds heavy', you say 'two pounds in weight'.

7. A few adjectives are used alone after a noun.

designate	elect	galore	incarnate
-----------	-------	--------	-----------

She was now the president elect.

There are empty houses galore.

E. EXERCISE I

Complete the definitions using the adjectives below.

afraid asleep aware ready content due glad sorry sure unable

1. If you are afraid to do something, you feel fear because you think it will hurt you in some way.
2. If you are _____ about something, you are pleased and happy about it.
3. If you are _____ to do something, it is impossible for you to do it.
4. If something _____ is _____ at a particular time, it is expected to happen or arrive at that time.
5. If you feel _____ about something, you are sad or disappointed about it.

6. If you say that someone is _____ of himself or herself, you mean that they are very confident.
7. If you are of something, you know that it exists or that it is important.
8. If you are half you are not listening or paying attention because you are very tired.
9. If you are to do something, you are willing to do it.
10. If you are you are fairly happy.

B. Order of adjectives

Main points

- We put opinion adjectives in front of descriptive adjectives.
- We put general opinion adjectives in front of specific opinion adjectives.
- We can sometimes vary the order of adjectives.

- If you use two or more descriptive adjectives, you put them in a particular order.
 - If you use a noun in front of another noun, you put any adjectives in front of the first noun.
1. When you use more than one adjective to express your opinion, an adjective with a more general meaning such as 'good', 'bad', 'nice', or 'lovely' usually comes before an adjective with a more specific meaning such as 'comfortable', 'clean', or 'dirty'.

I sat in a lovely comfortable armchair in the corner.

He put on a nice clean shirt.

It was a horrible dirty room

2. We can use adjectives to describe various qualities of people or things. For example, we might want to indicate their size, their shape, or the country they come from.

Descriptive adjectives belong to six main types, but we are unlikely ever to use all six types in the same noun group. If we did, we would normally put them in the following order

Size	shape	age
colour	nationality	material

This means that if you want to use an 'age' adjective and a 'nationality' adjective, you put the 'age' adjective first.

We met some young Chinese girls.

Similarly, a 'shape' adjective normally comes before a 'colour' adjective.

He had round black eyes.

Other combinations of adjectives follow the same order. Note that 'material' means any substance, not only cloth.

There was a large round wooden table in the room.

The man was carrying a small black plastic bag.

3. When you use two adjectives as the complement of a linking verb, you use a conjunction such as 'and' to link them. With three or more adjectives, you link the last two with a conjunction, and put commas after the others.

The day was hot and dusty.
The room was large but square.
The house was old, damp and smelly.
We felt hot, tired and thirsty.

EXERCISES II

Are the adjectives in these phrases in the normal order? Answer 'Yes' or 'No'.

1.a long hot day.
2. ... a big juicy steak
3. ... a large black dog
4. ... a slim graceful woman
5. ... a tall handsome young man
6. ... a grey woolen pullover
7. ... short fat legs
8. ... a large comfortable armchair

9. ... a new red dress
10. ... a long difficult journey

C. Adjectives ending in '-ing' or '-ed'

Main points

- Many adjectives ending in '-ing' describe the effect that something has on someone's feelings
 - Some adjectives ending in '-ing' describe a process or state that continues over a period of time.
 - Many adjectives ending in '-ed' describe people's feelings.
1. You use many '-ing' adjectives to describe the effect that something has on your feelings, or on the feelings of people in general. For example, if you talk about ' a surprising number', you mean that number surprises you.

alarming charming embarrassing surprising amazing confusing exciting terrifying

*He lives in a charming house just outside the town.
She always has a warm welcoming smile.*

2. You use some '-ing' adjectives to describe something that continues over a period of time.

Aging	decreasing	Existing	Living
Booming	Dying	Increasing	Remaining

*Britain is an aging society.
Increasing prices are making food very expensive.*

3. Many '-ed' adjectives describe people's feelings. They have the same form as the past participle of a transitive verb and have a passive meaning. For example, 'a frightened person' is a person who has been frightened by something.

alarmed	delighted	frightened	surprised
amused	depressed	interested	tired etc.

She looks alarmed about something.
A bored student complained to his teacher.
She had big blue frightened eyes.

Note that the past participle of irregular verbs do not end in '-ed', but can be used as adjectives.

The bird had a broken wing.
His coat was dirty and torn.

5. Like other adjectives, '-ing' and '-ed' adjectives can be :

- used in front of a noun.

They still show amazing loyalty to their parents.
This is the most terrifying tale ever written

- used after linking verb.

It's amazing what they can do.

The present situation is terrifying.

- Modified by adverbs such as ‘quite’, ‘really’, and ‘very’.

The film was quite boring.

There is nothing very surprising in this

- Used in the comparative and superlative.

His argument was more convincing than mine.

He became even more depressed after she died.

5. A small number of '-ed' adjectives are normally only used after linking verbs such as 'be', 'become', or 'feel'. They are related to transitive verbs, and are often followed by a prepositional phrase, a 'to' infinitive clause, or a 'that'-clause.

convinced	interested	prepared	tired
delighted	involved	scared	touched
pleased	thrilled

The Brazilians are pleased with the results.
He was always prepared to account for his actions.

EXERCISES III

I. Use the '-ing' adjectives below to complete the sentences which follow.

aging	existing	growing
increasing	living	rising

1. The main problem is raising prices. Things are getting much too expensive.
2. Factories in Japan are becoming even more automated, making use of robots.
3. Things will have to change. The system simply doesn't work.

4. Mohammed Ali, the former heavyweight champion of the world, has been described as a legend.
5. The young folk have all gone. There is no one left in the village apart from a few people.
6. Unemployment is on the increase. A number of young people, in particular, are finding themselves out of work.

II. Use the '-ed' adjectives below to complete the definitions which follow.

alarmed	amused	astonished
bored	depressed	satisfied

1. When you find something funny, you are amused by it.
2. If something makes you sad and unhappy, you feel
3. If you are, you feel very surprised.

4. If something makes you very worried, you are by it.
5. If you are reasonably content with something, you feel
6. When you are, you feel tired and impatient because you have nothing to do.

HEALTH CARE AND MEDICAL PRACTICE IN ISLAM

Islam has many constructive ideas to offer in the field of health care and medical practice. In Islamic sense, the health care practitioner must consider himself as an agent through which Allah acts. He must not delude himself into a position of exaggerated self-important. The health in view of Islam as demonstrated clearly in Quran and Sunnah is that mankind should be sound mentally, physically and socially. This greatly corresponds to the WHO definition of Health. Medicine and Health in Islam are part and parcel of Worship or subservience. A weak person may not perform his duties towards Allah, his family and community as the strong healthy one can do.

Medicine is both art and science. It encompasses prevention of diseases and treating them. Preventive medicine is especially important in health care. Most of the health gains in modern medicine are principally due to advancements in sanitation and diet. The curative medicine is also as important as the preventive medicine.

Preventive and Curative approaches have been used by man to keep himself healthy, happy and strong. The teachings of Islam about Health and Medicine can be known by reading the Quran and the Prophet's Sunnah.

B. WORDS TO MEMORIZE

To offer : Menawarkan

Agent : Wakil, khalifah

To delute : Memperdaya, menipu

Exaggerated : Membesar-besarkan

Sounds : Sehat, sahih

Subservience : Kepatuhan

To encompass: Mencakup, meliputi

Advancement : Kemajuan

Sanitation : Kebersihan

C. COMPREHENSION

1. What is the view of Islam on the health care practitioner?
2. Why does Islam put medicine and health as part of our worship?
3. What is the use of medicine according to the text?
4. In your own words, please briefly explain which one is more important - preventive or curative medicines.
5. What are two main sources of Islam about health which can be used by Muslims?

D. Language Focus: ADVERBS OF MANNER

Study these sentences !

1. ..., mankind should be sound mentally, physically, and socially.
2. This greatly corresponds to the WHO definition of health.
3. Preventive medicine is especially important in health care.

Main points

- Most adverbs of manner are formed by adding '-ly' to an adjective, but sometimes other spelling changes are needed.
- You cannot form adverbs from adjectives that end in '-ly'.
- Some adverbs have the same form as adjectives.
- You do not use adverbs after linking verbs, you use adjectives.
- Adverbs of manner are sometimes prepositional phrases or noun groups.

Adverbs of manner are often formed by adding '-ly' to an adjective.

Adjectives

bad

beautiful careful quick quiet

soft

Adverbs

badly beautifully carefully quickly

quietly

softly

2. Adverbs formed in this way usually have a similar meaning to the adjective.

She is as clever as she is beautiful.

He talked so politely and danced so

'We must not talk. We must be quiet, said Sita.

She wanted to sit quietly, to relax.

3. There are sometimes changes in spelling when an adverb is formed from an adjective.

	Adjectives	Adverbs
'-le'	changes to '-ly'	: gentle gently
'-y'	changes to '-ily'	: easy easily
'-ic'	changes to '-ically'	: automatic automatically
'-ue'	changes to '-uly'	: true truly
'-ll'	changes to '-lly'	: full fully

Note that 'public' changes to 'publicly', not 'publically'.

You cannot form adverbs from adjectives that already end in '-ly'. For example, you cannot say 'He smiled at me friendlily'. You can sometimes use a prepositional phrase instead: 'He smiled at me in a friendly way'.

4. Some adverbs of manner have the adjective forms and have similar meaning 'fast', 'hard', and 'late'.

I've always been interested in fast cars (adjective)
The driver was driving too fast. (adverb)

Note that 'hardly' and 'lately' are not adverbs of manner and have different meanings from the adjectives 'hard' and 'late'.

It was a hard decision to make.

I hardly had any time to talk to her.

The train was late as usual.

Have you seen John lately?

5. The adverb of manner related to the adjective 'good' is 'well'.

He is a good dancer. He dances well.

Note that 'well' can sometimes be an adjective it refers to someone's health.

'How are you?'-'I am very well, thank you.'

6. You do not use adverbs after linking verb 'be', 'become', 'feel', 'get', 'look', and an adjective after these verbs. For example, you do not say 'Sue felt happily', you say 'Sue felt happy'.

7. You do not often use prepositional noun groups as adverbs of manner. However, you occasionally need to use them, for example when there is no adverb form available. The prepositional phrases and noun groups usually include a noun such as 'way', 'fashion', or 'manner', or a not refers to someone's voice.

*She asked me in such a nice manner that I couldn't refuse.
He did it he right way.*

Prepositional phrases with 'like' are also used as adverbs of manner.

*I slept like a baby.
He drove like a madman.*

E. EXERCISES

- I. Use the adjective or adverb in brackets to complete each of the following pairs of sentences correctly.
1. It's an easy question.
You should be able to answer it quite(easy/easily)

2. I can type a bit but I'm very I'm afraid I can only type very (slow/ slowly)
3. Mr. Robbins shouted at the children. The children made Mr. Robbins very

II. Complete the following with either an adjective or an adverb.

Example : She has a loud voice; she talks loudly.

1. They are hard workers; They work
2. It's a train; It goes very fast.
3. They are happy children; they play together.
4. She was wearing a pretty dress; she was dressed very
5. He did a bad job. In fact, he did the job very

SMOKING IS A SLOW SUICIDE

Smoking is also considered an up to date catastrophe. It is harmful in all aspects, a waste of health, money and properties, disturb the social relations of the members of the family. But most often the smoker refuses to stop it even though he knows that tobacco is injurious to health and to family income. He doesn't realize that each cigarette he lights contains both nicotine and tar which will ultimately poison his health and life. Smoking is the quickest way to contract various diseases, e.g. cardiac, respiratory, and lung cancer. Smokers seem to be as if they dig their tombs by their nails.

Tobacco is a foul thing to be consumed because it is injurious to health. In addition, consuming tobacco is a waste of money which is spent neither for religious nor for secular benefit. The Prophet (p.b.u.h) forbade wasting of property. This becomes more serious when the money is otherwise needed for the sustenance of oneself or one's family.

Says Allah Almighty:

And do not cast into ruin by your own hands (2:195)

And His Messenger (p.b.u.h) said:

“Do not harm yourself or others.”

(Source: DR. Suleiman Qush, The Scientific Discoveries in Correlation to Glorious Islam)

B. WORDS TO MEMORIZE

Catastrophe: Malapetaka

Properties : Harta benda

Injury : Luka, penyakit

Light : Membakar

Tombs : Kuburan

Nail : Kuku

Secular : Duniawi

Benefit : Keuntungan, manfaat.

Sustenance : Makanan

C. COMPREHENSION

1. Why is smoking considered a modern catastrophe?
2. What are some diseases that may be caused by smoking?
3. What are two main bad things in tobacco that can affect someone's health?
4. What is the Islamic principle used by the author to support his idea in the text?
5. Why the use of tobacco is a foul thing to do?

D. Language focus: COMPARISON

Look at the following sentences !

1. Tobacco is injurious to health. (positive)

2. This becomes more serious (comparative degree)
3. Smoking is the quickest way to contract various diseases.
(superlative)

Main points

1. You add '-er' for the comparative and '-est' for the superlative of one-syllable adjectives and adverbs. If they end in '-e', you add '-r' and '-st'.

cheap ☐ cheaper ☐ cheapest safe ☐ safer ☐ safest

They work harder.
I've found a nicer hotel.

2. With two syllable adjectives ending in a consonant followed by ‘-y’, you change the ‘-y’ to ‘-i’ and add ‘-er’ and ‘-est’.

Happy ☐ happier ☐ happiest

It couldn’t be easier

This is the funniest bit of the film.

3. You use 'more' for the comparative and ‘most’ for the superlative of most two-syllable adjectives, all longer adjectives and adverbs in ‘ly’.

careful ☐ more careful ☐ most careful beautiful ☐ more beautiful ☐ most beautiful seriously ☐ more seriously ☐ most seriously

Be more careful next time.

They are the most beautiful gardens in the world.

It affected Raihan most seriously.

Note that for 'early' as an adjective or adverb, you use 'earlier' and 'earliest', not 'more' and 'most'.

4. With some common two-syllable adjectives and adverbs, you can either add '-er' and '-est', or use 'more' and 'most'.

Common	gentle	cruel
Simple	narrow	stupid

Note that 'clever' and 'quiet' only add '-er' and '-est'.

It was quieter outside.

He was the cleverest man / ever met.

5. You normally use 'the' with superlative adjectives in front of nouns, but you can omit 'the' after a linking verb.

It was the happiest day of my life.
It was one of the most important discoveries.
I was happiest when I was on my own.

When 'most' is used without 'the' in front of adjectives and adverbs, it often means almost the same as 'very'.

This book was most interesting.

6. A few common adjectives and adverbs have irregular comparative and superlative forms.

good/well	☐ better	☐ best
bad/badly	☐ worse	☐ worst
far	☐ farther/further	☐ farthest/furthest
old	☐ older/elder	☐ oldest/eldest

*She would ask him when she knew him better.
She sat near the furthest window.*

Note that you use 'elder' or 'eldest' to say which brother, sister, or child in a family you mean.

*Our eldest daughter couldn't come.
That is the funniest bit of the film.*

Comparatives and superlatives: uses

Main points

- Comparative adjectives are used to compare people or things.
 - Superlative adjectives are used to say that one person or thing has more of a quality than others in a group or others of that kind.
 - Comparative adverbs are used in the same way as adjectives.
1. You use comparative adjectives to compare one person or thing with another, or with the same person or thing at another time. After a comparative adjective, you often use 'than'.

She was much older than me.

I am happier than I have ever been.

2. You use a superlative to say that one person or thing has more of a quality than others in a group or others of that kind.

Tokyo is Japan's largest city.
He was the tallest person there.

3. You can use comparative and superlative adjectives in front of a noun.

I was a better writer than he was.
He had more important things to do.
It was the quickest route from Rome to Naples.

You can also use comparative and superlative adjectives after linking verbs.

My brother is younger than me.
He feels more content now.
The sergeant was the tallest.
This book was the most interesting.

4. You can use adverbs of degree in front of comparative adjectives.

a bit	a great/good deal	a lot
rather	far a little	much slightly

This car's a bit more expensive.

Now I feel a great deal more confident.

It's a rather more complicated story than that.

You can also use adverbs of degree such as 'by far', 'easily', 'much', or 'quite' in front of 'the' and superlative adjectives.

It was by far the worst hospital I had ever seen.

She was easily the most intelligent person in the class

'the' and a superlative adjective ending in '-est'.

It was of the very highest quality.

5. When you want to say that one situation depends on another, you can use 'the' and a comparative followed by 'the' and another comparative.

The smaller it is, the cheaper it is to post.

The larger the Organization is, the greater the problem of administration becomes.

When you want to say that something increases or decreases, you can use two comparatives linking by 'and'.

It's getting harder and harder to find a job. Cars are becoming more and more expensive.

6. After a superlative adjective, you can use a prepositional phrase to specify the group you are talking about.

Henry was the biggest of them.

These cakes are probably the best in the world.

He was the most dangerous man in the country.

7. You use the same structures in comparisons using adverbs as those given for adjectives:

- 'than' after comparative adverbs

Prices have been rising faster than incomes.

- 'the' and a comparative adverb followed by 'the' and another comparative adverb

The quicker we finish, the sooner we will go home.

- two comparative adverbs linked by 'and'

He sounded worse and worse.

He drove faster and faster till we told him to stop.

E. EXERCISES

A. Make sentences with a comparative adjective and 'than', using the words given.

1 Tokyo - big - New York. / Tokyo is bigger than New York

2. My sister - old - me. /

3. Our new house - big - the one we used to live in. /

4. Travelling by train - comfortable - travelling by bus. /

That's the most ridiculous story I've ever heard.

2. We had never stayed in a more expensive hotel.

It was we had ever stayed in.

3. I had never had such a tiring journey before.

It was I had ever had.

4. I've never had nearly such a tasty meal before.

That was I have ever had.

5. It's years since I saw a game as good as that.

That's I've seen for years.

ANSWER TO AN ENEMY OF ISLAM

Our Prophet declares, "Every child comes to the world with a pure soul, later their parents make them irreligious". This means to say that it is necessary to teach Islam to children. Their pure souls are suitable for Islam. If a child doesn't learn Islam correctly, he will misunderstand Islam. And he will be easily deceived by the enemies of Islam. If an ignorant person of the religion has never received any good and valid religious information, he will fall into the traps of the lies and slanders of unbelievers. He will learn Islam as a quite different, altogether reverse thing. He will be the victim of the poisonous inoculations of the insolently fabled writings. As a result, he will not find ease in the world. And he will be caught in the endless disasters and torments in the next world.

Every Moslem has to know the efforts of the enemies of Islam that try to deceive the Muslim youngsters. Otherwise, they will be dragged into disasters by believing in the lies propagated by the unbelievers. In reverse, a vigilant and cultured person who has understood Islam correctly and well will not believe in the lies of the enemies of Islam.

B. WORDS TO MEMORIZE

Soul	: Jiwa
Lies	: Tipuan
Slanders	: Fitnah, hujatan
Ignorant	: Ingkar, Kafir
Trap	: Jebakan
Reverse	: Terbalik

Torments : Siksaan

Vigilant : Waspada

Cultured : Terpelajar

C. COMPREHENSION

1. Why is Islam necessary to teach to children?
2. What happens if a child does not learn Islam correctly?
3. What is the main source used by the author to support his view in this writing.
4. How can a man fall into the traps of enemies of Islam?
5. What is the main purpose of the text above?

C. Language Focus : CONDITIONAL

Observe the following examples !

1. If a child doesn't learn Islam correctly, he will misunderstand it.
2. If an ignorant person of the religion has never received any good and valid religious information, he will fall into the traps of the lies and slanders of unbelievers.

The conditional is used when we want to express a situation which is dependent on a certain condition or conditions.

The conditional can be expressed by:

- If + the simple present and shall/will + the basic form of the verb.
- If + the simple past and should/would + the basic form of the verb
- If + 'were' and would + the basic form of the verb.
- If + the past perfect and would + the present perfect.

The Real Condition

If + the simple present and shall/will + the basic form of the verb.

The real condition is used for a likely event, the fulfillment of which is dependent on another.

If it rains this afternoon, I will not attend the meeting.

If we find the time, we shall go to the museum.

If I have money, I will buy a car.

The Unreal Condition I

If + the simple past and should/would + the basic form of the verb.

The unreal condition I is used for an unlikely event.

If she came, I would be happy

(It is unlikely for her to come)

If he believed me, he would pass the test.

(It is unlikely for him not to believe)

The Unreal Condition II

If + were and would + the basic form of the verb

The unreal condition II is used for an impossible assumption; a situation that can never arise.

*If I were you, I would not do such a fool thing.
If you were here, I would not do this job.*

The Unreal Condition III

If + the past perfect and would + the present perfect

The unreal condition III is used for an irrevocable event.

*If they had worked hard, they would have passed their final examination.
If I had had enough money, I would have gone abroad.*

D. EXERCISES

Fill in the blanks with suitable verbs to express the Conditional.

For example :

If I (be) a few minutes early, I ... (get) the last copy of the book.

If I had been a few minutes early, I would have got the last copy of the book.

1. If he ... (take) my advice, he (succeed) in the business venture.
2. If I (be) you , I (drive) him out of the house.
3. If he (go) to the airport earlier, he (met) his childhood friend.
4. If I see her, I (give) her the book.
5. If he goes into that field, the fierce dog (chase) him.

6. If the time is not convenient, I (change) it.
7. If I find your bag, I (inform) you.
8. If I knew her address, I (give) it to you.
9. If she had listened to my directions, She (find) the place.
10. If you pass your examination, we (have) a celebration
